2009 INShape Indiana Health Summit – Tuesday, September 29th

Are you ready to make our state a healthier place? Join us Tuesday, September 29, 2009 at the Indiana State University Hulman Center to showcase your organization's strategies and resources to help improve the health of Indiana's smaller communities.

The 2009 INShape Indiana Health Summit's theme "Healthy Lifestyles, Healthy Communities," will showcase the strategies and resources available to improve the health of smaller Communities, with a key-note presentation from "the Father of Aerobics," Dr. Kenneth H. Cooper. The summit is presented in partnership with the Indiana State Department of Health, the Indiana Rural Health Association, and the Indiana State University College of Nursing, Health and Human Services. We invite you to participate in this important event.
